1920s and 1930s OWs welcomed back to school

OWs from the 1930s and the Head Master in front of the school's new Thornton Building

Twenty of our most senior Old Warwickians, who were at school in the 1920s and 1930s, were warmly welcomed back to school by the Head Master, Edward Halse on Saturday 5 September. For many it was a moving and emotional experience as they had not been back to the school or seen one another for many years.

The OWs witnessed the formal opening of the new Warwick School Museum and enjoyed a celebratory lunch in the Pyne Room, where they shared anecdotes and memories about their time at school in the 1930s.

The Warwick School Museum, in the small classroom nearest the chapel, tells the Warwick School story and displays a number of important letters, photographs and documents. Archives on display include the oldest surviving school list from 1881, an autographed manuscript of the first Warwick School song of 1829, details of famous old boy John Masefield, Poet Laureate in the 1930s and the electric clock which rang the school bell for some 30 years from the 1960s onwards.

Events and Reunions

Find out about social and professional networking events for Old Warwickians over the coming months. From drinks receptions to formal dinners and from London to Hong Kong, there are many events for OWs to enjoy.

1969 Anniversary Reunion

Graham Powell (WS 1962-1969), organiser of the 1969 reunion, reports here on a very enjoyable weekend.

With much trepidation, forty former students whom attended Warwick School between 1962 and 1969 revisited Warwick for a 'Forty Year On' Reunion on 20 June 2009. Our doubts and concerns soon evaporated once our 58 year old selves realised that we were still 18 years old at heart. The ease with which conversation flowed around past recollections, intervening triumphs and tribulations and future hopes, indicated just how much warmth and fellow feeling the group felt for each other. Many had travelled a good distance to be present. Attendance by four former teachers – Ken Freeborn, Geoff Lane, Roger Mitchell and Mervyn Riches – added a welcome dimension to the day.

The class of '69 and the Head Master

The weekend included a most interesting visit to the school. It was difficult to remember exactly where some of the familiar buildings of the 1960s had been and it was astonishing to see just how well resourced the school has become. Afternoon tea with the Head Master – overseen by the portrait of our former headmaster – reminded us of those things that don't change. Regular and restrained imbibitions – as befits our age – enabled more reminiscences to flow through the evening that culminated in a dinner at The Lord Leycester Hotel. Donald Agnew provided a perfectly judged after dinner speech to which Ken Freeborn responded with words that genuinely moved his audience. Michael Poultney led us in a rendition of the school song, which we all thought we had erased from our memory banks.

We returned to the lives we lead with promises to keep in touch and do it again one day. We will try not to leave it another forty years. Altiora Peto.

Warwick School's results improve year on year through the professionalism of the staff, hard working efforts of the boys and strong support from parents.
Long may it continue!

Congratulations

Congratulations to OW Alan Sturley (WS 1943-49), who was awarded an MBE in the Queen's Birthday Honours. Alan is a previous chairman of the OWA and FOWS.

Former OWA president Sir David Fosskett (WS 1956-67) and distinguished Guardian drama critic Michael Billington (WS 1949-58) were recently honoured to become Fellows of King's College, London.

We also congratulate all OWs who have graduated this summer (full details in The Portcullis 2009). Particular congratulations go to Rob Pomfret. As well as earning a First in Modern History at Christ Church, Oxford, he was also awarded the Gladstone Prize by the University History Faculty.

Anthony Wilkinson and Kamal Chhibber meet at the Lord's Twenty20 Finals, to celebrate with Tony Crockert their election as playing members of MCC

OW Malcolm Hawkesford

OW Malcolm Hawkesford died suddenly on 14 July 2008, aged 58. Malcolm had many passions and loved being by the sea. He was a keen sailor and his family and close friends set up a memorial fund to acquire and maintain an inshore rescue boat to be named in his memory. The memorial fund has raised over £25,000 and the money will be spent on two RNLI inshore rescue boats, named Malcolm Hawkesford I and Malcolm Hawkesford II. The fund is after one final push before it closes in a few weeks, so if you would like to support the RNLI – and remember Malcolm – go onto www.justgiving.com/hawkboat.

Employ a Professional Sportsperson

Charlie Mulraine (WS 1981-93) (pictured) is a former professional cricketer and rugby player. His specialist outplacement organisation, Mulraine Sport, places professional sports people into industry. Working closely with elite performers from leading sports, Charlie gives companies access to highly motivated and single-minded individuals who are seeking part-time work to fit around their training commitments, or full-time opportunities for those retiring from competitive sport. If you would like to be involved in this extremely rewarding and beneficial programme, please contact Charlie Mulraine, Tel: 08702 640530 or E-mail charlie@mulrainesport.com.

New War Memorial

The school has plans for a new war memorial in remembrance of OWs killed in active service since WWII. As far as we are aware, Pte Joe Whittaker is the only OW fatality since WWII. If you are aware of any other names which should be included on the memorial, we would be very grateful if you would contact Rev Andrew Gough, E-mail: awg@warwickschool.org.

Speech Day

The school was delighted to welcome back OW Clive Mather (WS 1959-66) at speech day in July. During his moving and inspiring speech, Clive donned a Canadian Stetson and used a model truck as a prop (reminders of his years as President and CEO of Shell Canada Ltd). Clive was chairman of Shell UK and is still chairman of the Shell Pension Fund and chairman of Tearfund. After a lifetime of travelling, Clive and his wife Ann now live in Guildford.

Warwick School boys swim the English Channel!

The English Channel swimming team

Racing the ferry!

Towards the end of the summer term a team of boys from Warwick School and girls from King's High took up the challenge of completing the world's most famous long distance relay swim.

Two teams of swimmers (aged 13 to 18) swam across the Channel after 11 months of training. They contended with rolling swells, very low water temperatures, dense fog, cramp, seaweed, jellyfish and large tankers and ferries. With great fortitude, determination and courage, the first team completed their crossing in 11 hours and 38 minutes and the second team completed their crossing in 12 hours and 38 minutes.

Congratulations to all who completed this amazing challenge!

The pupils aim to raise over £10,000 for the Acorns Children's Hospice Trust.

OW Cricket

Special thanks to AN Crockert for providing the following cricket reports.

OWA 1st XI vs School

Sat 4 July 2009

Chhibber won the toss for OWs and elected to bat, format 50/50 with 10 overs max' per bowler. OWs were 27 for 1 after 9 overs with ANC retired hurt after a couple of overs and the Captain out for 7.

Roots joined opener Rigby and saw them recover to 176 after 40 overs, a solid partnership of 144. Roots finished on 114. Rigby scored 55. With only 10 overs left the rest of the OW batsmen closed on 219 off 48.1 overs.

In reply, school openers put on 87 for the 1st wicket (16 overs) and the 2nd wicket produced another 64 (total 151 off 36 overs). The OW bowlers succeeded in slowing the scoring rate and the score reached the total in 44 overs.

In a post match presentation, Tony said that OWs could take some heart from their performance. Good cricket had been played by both sides and there were some notable individual performances.

Cups were awarded as follows:

Batting Cup: D G Roots.

Bowling Cup: A E Wilkinson.

Fielding Cup: A Streeter.

OWA vs Kenilworth Fri 3 July 2009

Kenilworth Cricket Club kindly agreed use of their ground for our Friday game this year. 18 OWs played and Leonard raised four Kenilworth players and captained the combined side.

Kenilworth won the toss and elected to bat. This was 40/40, max' 8 overs per bowler. After the early loss of Whiteside, Howard (27) and Wood (112 not out) put on 79 together, then Kenilworth players launched their attack and finished on 264-6 after 38.3 overs when Leonard declared.

OWs vs Old Grovians

Cricket World Trophy, Sun 7 June 2009

Woodhouse Grove, Bradford

50 overs were agreed by the Captains. Anthony Wilkinson won the toss, elected to bowl first and OWs soon had OGs reeling at 24-4 after 10 overs. Excellent bowling by Alastair Wilkinson and Leonard closed with figures of 10 overs, 1 maiden, 42 runs and 3 wickets and 10-0-44-1 respectively. 2 fine catches were taken by Streeter (debut).

OGs Captain played a patient innings and, with his partner, put on 120 for the next wicket. Anthony Wilkinson kept control and OGs finished on 215 all out after 47.2 overs.

OWA started steadily and reached 58-2 off 18 overs by tea. Progress was made by Ant Wilkinson (35) and Streeter (32) in a partnership of 60 off 10 overs and some fine hitting by Ali Wilkinson (not out 16) got us back to a run a ball, but we fell short by 46 runs. Woodhouse Grove was a great place to play the game. Many thanks to our hosts for their warm and generous hospitality.

Lord's Taverners vs Warwickian XI Sun 5 July 2009

The second OWs vs Lords Taverners charity match took place on 5 July. This year the fixture was moved to coincide with the OW weekend and tie in with Stone's Twenty20 competition which included two OW teams, a Leavers XI and a Staff XI.

In the Taverners match the OWs batted first, scoring a solid 236 thanks largely to 100 from Wood, after Umaga had destroyed the top order taking three quick wickets.

In reply, the Taverners got off to a solid start. Brown found Holdsworth's bowling to his liking. A powerful 71 from Ostler saw the Taverners home with three overs to spare.

This was another very successful day, enjoyed by players, guests and supporters. £6,500 was raised for the charity.

Tadmarton Heath Meeting

Tue 19 May 2009

Julian Marcus reports that a great day was enjoyed by all, with 14 OWs making it to Tadmarton Heath for coffee and a morning's very social golf – Edinburgh foursomes for the Gracie Tankards. The afternoon saw another OW join us to make for five 3-balls and increase the competition for the much coveted Langley Trophy.

The weather did its best to provide additional harassment for some of the day, but it did little to dampen the camaraderie and friendship – the most common and enduring feature of any OW golf day.

Gracie Tankard Results

So often many good pairings (well pairings on paper anyway!) try hard but fail to achieve.

However, with the truly commendable score of 35 pts, Chris Kaye and John Ayres prevailed as winners. Congratulations to both Chris and John but especially to Chris who successfully defended his crown from last year and retains his tankard for yet another year.

Runners up, on 34 pts, were Brian Woodham and Edwin Langdale.

The highly coveted prizes were two Nike golf balls for each of the winners and a single ball to the runners up. Ah well!

Langley Trophy Results

An individual stableford, played off 7/8 handicap in the afternoon, should have provided for tight competition and it did not disappoint. Though the range of scores was indeed quite wide, the records show that in third place, on 29 pts, was our Captain – Duncan Rotherham. Well done Captain.

Second place, on back 9 count back, went to Chris (I don't know if I can carry all my golf balls home) Kaye again with 30 pts.

And in first place, a lightly raced individual with a truly wonderful 30 pts in tough playing conditions – Mr Mike Barnwell – a delighted and humble winner.

The prizes were similarly high quality. Three balls to the winner, two for second and a single ball to third – all signed by Tiger himself!

OWs vs School

Fri 3 July 2009

In their annual match against the school, OWs won 3-0. Two of the games were very closely fought.

l-r: Tim Priest, Pip Whitting, Julian Marcus, Phil James, Geoff Tedstone and Mike Barnwell

Next Golf Meeting:

Broadway Golf Club, 9 October 2009

Julian adds: Please do your very best to try and support the club – it is trying to grow and needs everyone to do their bit. Everyone is always very welcome and it would be lovely to see some new faces, some 'old' but younger faces and, of course, the old stalwarts.

OW Tennis

In their annual encounter against the school, which took place this year on Saturday 4 July, the OWs lost by 7 rubbers to 2. An improvement on the previous year but, more importantly, a fun and enjoyable afternoon had by all.

l-r: James Mower, Bruce Cockerton, Ian Macvie, David Payne and Cliff Daniel. Also playing was Don Hanson

OW Rugby

As we go to press OWs are warming up for the annual OW rugby match, scheduled to take place on Saturday 12 September. A report on the match and rugby supper will follow in the next Old Warwickian newsletter.

John Croft and Colin Harkness

David Wells (WS 1944-50) is looking for two friends from school with whom he has sadly lost touch. If you know the whereabouts of John Croft or Colin Harkness, who were at school in the 1940s, please contact Alison Lima in Alumni Relations. E-mail al@warwickschool.org or telephone 01926 776404.
