Welcome to the OWA

2023 Leavers

Our 2023 leavers celebrated their time at Warwick School with a range of events, culminating in a formal graduation ceremony in Warwick Hall on 23 June, where they were presented with their OW tie and welcomed into the Old Warwickian Association by Adrian Keeling KC (WS 1975-85). We wish them well as they embark on the next stage in their lives and encourage them to stay in touch.

Celebrating A Level results

This year's A level results stand our pupils in excellent stead to continue to their choice of higher education and career opportunities. At Warwick School our purpose is to inspire and nurture every pupil to thrive in the world, both now and in the future, and thus enable our pupils to live successful, fulfilling, happy lives. We are extremely proud of the courage and perseverance our 2023 leavers have shown and the results they achieved this summer.

Head Master, James Barker, commented, "Huge congratulations are in order for all our Upper Sixth pupils. The last few years have been extremely challenging for them – academically, socially, and emotionally. Even though this was their first set of public examinations, having had their GCSE year severely disrupted by Covid-19, nearly 90% have secured a place on a university course of their choosing, with 92 earning places at Russell Group or other highly selective institutions (including Loughborough and Bath), and all 9 Oxbridge offer holders successful in securing their place."

Warwick Schools Foundation Principal, Mr Richard Nicholson added, "I am immensely proud of the achievements of all our Foundation pupils. Having missed out on sitting their GCSEs in the usual way, this cohort has shown determination and resilience and can now reflect on their exceptional achievements. They have an impressive launching pad for their future endeavours, and to make the most of all the opportunities beyond our schools. However, they could not have done this without expert staff and the support of their families. It is truly a whole community celebration."

Anniversary Reunions

1973, '83, '93, 2003 and 2013 Leavers

10 June 2023

On 10 June, over 200 OWs and a number of staff who taught them returned for Anniversary Reunions to mark fifty, forty, thirty, twenty and ten years since leaving. The reunions were simple and relaxed, with drinks, a welcome from the Head Master and tours of the school with prefects. For many, it was the first time back since leaving school.

It was a privilege to spend time with you all, seeing again the boys we were in the faces of the men we've become.

Lives once on the brink of adulthood are now at the stage of 'So what did you do?'

Truly wonderful to see our teachers again!

OWA President's Dinner

OWA President 2023 Jim Button (WS 1978-85) hosted a tremendous dinner for over 90 OWs and their wives, partners and friends at Leamington Tennis Court Club on Saturday 13 May.

Tucked away in the heart of the town, Leamington Tennis Court Club is the oldest tennis club in the world.

During the champagne drinks reception Norman Hyde (WS 1956-63) gave a brief insight into the history of the club which has a thriving membership of over 400 from across the world, including a number of OWs who relish playing this high-strategy indoor racket sport which is essentially unchanged since the Middle Ages.

An excellent dinner was served on court. The first OWA Loyal Toast to HM King Charles III was given by Jonathan Meredith (WS 1953-64). The Head Master gave an update on the school and toasted the Old Warwick Association and the President concluded the formal part of the evening with a toast to Warwick School and thanks to family, friends and fellow OWs. It was wonderful to see many different generations of OWs (including many Buttons!) enjoying friendship and camaraderie in an extraordinary and historic setting.

University Challenge

With thanks to some research from Eric Hadley (WS staff 1990 to date) we note that during the 60 or so years that University Challenge has existed, at least five OWs have graced our television screens. The most recent participant, Will Rogers (WS 2008-13) captained a Birmingham team.

Since the start of this century, the following OWs have participated in University Challenge:

- Szymon Sawicki who captained the Newcastle team in 2004
- Rupert Millard who took part in the Birmingham team in 2006
- Alex Hyde who took part in the Royal Veterinary College team in 2009
- Matthew Chan who captained the Magdalen College, Oxford team in 2010
- Will Rogers who captained the Birmingham team in 2023.

Living with the pain of osteoarthritis for over ten years and undergoing a total hip replacement has encouraged Chris Maslin (WS 1979-86) to try and help people in a similar position by writing a companion guide. The A-Z Companion Guide to Orthopaedic Surgery focuses on mental health and wellbeing and also offers tips to help friends and family provide much needed support at this difficult time.

Happy Birthday Miss Tingle

Best wishes to Margaret Keighley

Nigel Robinson (WS 1955-66) kindly visited Margaret Keighley on her 102nd birthday. Nigel presented her with a card with good wishes from many of her former pupils. Miss Tingle, as she was known to many, taught in the Junior School from 1947 to '62.

Please add my congratulations to Margaret Keighley. As Miss Tingle, she was my form mistress in Lower 2 in 1958. I wasn't much good at raffia lamp shades, but she instilled in me the confidence to read and recite aloud in class. I've no doubt that this was excellent preparation for my 30 years at the BBC.

Nigel Kay (WS 1957-68)

Margaret, as I have told you before, I never really overcame the emotional turmoil I faced when, in my Lower II report, you described my Trug Basket as only "fairly good". It was a work of genius and would have been short-listed for the Turner Prize if entered for it. However, the time has arrived to 'forgive and forget' and this is as good an opportunity as any! All my very best wishes on your birthday.

Sir David Foscett (WS 1956-67)

Margaret taught me when I was 10 in form 2 in the Prep. She came to our house on Cliff Hill in Warwick once for tea and, as it was the cricket season, we played on our back lawn. Margaret bowled and I hit the ball straight through our kitchen window where my mother had a lucky escape while preparing tea. Happy days.

David Millard (WS 1946-65)

Heelis memorial hockey benches

Heelis brothers Richard (WS 1979-86) and Michael (WS 1981-88) kindly donated two memorial hockey benches in honour of their father Phil, who taught Physics at WS from 1964 to '91. Phil's talent and insight were hugely respected by both colleagues and students. His contribution to the school extended well beyond the academic and he was largely responsible for the emergence of hockey as one of the major winter games at school. For many years the school's hardest fixture was against his PSH XI – an invitational side which included several national players.

Richard and Mike Heelis and Capt of Hockey Rajan

OW Racing Club

In the previous Old Warwickian we reported that former WJS Headmaster Guy Canning is looking to establish an OW Racing Club. Club membership is open to OWs, past and present parents, staff and all friends of Warwick School. The aims of the OWRC are firstly to promote fellowship and secondly to share in the special excitement that racing offers. If you're interested in finding out more and arranging a stable-visit please email Guy on g.canning@outlook.com.

If any OWs are meeting up at the Rugby World Cup (or anywhere else!) we would love to share pics in the next Old Warwickian. Please send images to Anne Douglas on a.douglas@warwickschool.org

Summer term highlights included...

Head of School Josh Turner led and was part of imaginative initiatives which raised over £40,000 for different charities. These included a Warwick Schools Foundation Foodbank Fundraiser, which raised over £9,000 which secured match funding to purchase an electric van for Warwick District Foodbank.

In Young Enterprise, Year 6 students built and marketed their own businesses to create a healthy snack.

This year's Big Brass Concert was another show-stopper.

217 boys took part in the fourth Warwick Junior School Aquathlon.

GCSE and A level Art students put on an amazing exhibition in Warwick Hall.

The CCF was proud to mark the Coronation of King Charles III.

At the end of term, Lt Col Matthew Boulter (WS 1978-85) was special guest at the CCF Annual Mess Dinner where Lt Col Keith Davenport was given a special thank you after years of service as CCF Contingent Commander. Head of Chemistry Chris Grant (WS 1996-2003) takes on the role of Contingent Commander from September.

Year 6 students put on a colourful performance of The Lion King in the Bridge House Theatre.

Pupils at Warwick School celebrated their GCSE results. In overcoming significant disruption to their school experience, this cohort achieved excellent results alongside stunning co-curricular achievements in music, drama, sport, and more. The school is extremely proud of our pupils, and of the staff who have done so much to support them and minimise the impact of the pandemic on their educational experience. Head Master, James Barker, commented, "Given the much-publicised return of GCSE grades to 2019 levels, this year's results were reassuringly consistent with Warwick School's pre-Covid achievements. The fact that the percentage of A*/9-8 grades is higher than our 2019 equivalent is testimony to the courage and perseverance of pupils and staff, given the unique circumstances faced by this year group over the five years of their secondary education.". In 8 subjects, including Maths, Biology, Physics, History, and Chemistry, over 50% of pupils secured the top grade of an A* or equivalent 9/8.

Junior School boys showed great determination to do their best for their Houses in the Summer Sports Days.

The range of trips and tours offered to Warwick School students is staggering. From Hadrian's Wall to the Normandy World War Two battlefields and from India to the USA, our students have recently experienced a range of fantastic opportunities.

Warwick Schools Foundation

The summer term, across Warwick Schools Foundation, combined much joy and fun with the traditional cycle of exams and more formal occasions of speech days and prize giving. We include here some of the many memorable moments offered by our other schools across the Foundation, which comprises not only Warwick Senior and Junior Schools but also Warwick Prep, King's High and The Kingsley School.

Nutkins children enjoyed Thursday mornings 'Stay and Play' as a taster for Squirrels Nursery.

Lower Sixth Biologists at King's High enjoyed some intensive field work and data processing on their annual field trip.

Squirrels Nursery children searched for minibeasts.

As part of their work on rainforests, plants and habitats, Kingsley students visited The Living Rainforest.

With a mixture of mental, physical and skill-based challenges, The Kingsley School pupils had some unforgettable residential.

The Kingsley School sports day offered opportunities for lots of teamwork and individual talents, with plenty of laughter along the way.

King's High students enjoyed mountain biking, orienteering, coasteering, climbing and white water rafting as part of the school's Adventure Programme.

Alumnae from King's High were brought together for their ten year anniversary reunions.

Pastures new

Foundation Development Director Phillip Rothwell (WS 1994-2001) leaves us after over 12 years' service. Phillip joined Warwick School staff in 2011, establishing a new Development Office. As Development Director, he built on very positive relations with OWs to raise funds for the development of the school and increase wider access to a Warwick education. A former Assisted Places boy himself, Phillip is passionate about raising funds for bursaries to help more pupils attend the school from varied backgrounds. He launched a regular giving programme, enlisted the support of generous major donors and developed the Floreat Society legacy group.

Thanks to the generosity of over 350 OWs, parents and friends, Phillip led the school in raising over £1m towards the new Warwick Hall in 2015.

For the last five years, Phillip has been Foundation Director of Development, supporting all schools in the Foundation to build positive relations with alumni and friends and raise vital funds to enhance educational opportunities.

We wish Phillip all the best as he takes up the post of Director of Development at King's College, Taunton. Although he leaves the Foundation as a member of staff, he looks forward to continuing his association with the school as a proud Old Warwickian.

Many Kingsley alumnae returned to school for a summer garden party.

Warwick Schools Foundation hosted the second annual Future Fwd Conference, focussing on the skills that current and future pupils will need to make full and positive contributions to their communities and places of work.

OW Sport

OW Rugby 7s

The final tournament of the year, the Wimbledon 7s

The Old Warwickian 7s, set up in 2022, has had a second successful season with OWs loving playing and competing in the Warwick blue and white.

Five tournaments were played over the first season by over 30 OWs from seven school years. OWs were delighted to win the Open competition at the Summer Social in Richmond and made the final at Sixways, Worcester. Off the pitch, the squad raised £269 for the British Heart Foundation in memory of Dr Bill Gill (WS staff 2015-22) who was esteemed by all to be an amazing and treasured member of staff.

This season, OW 7s played four tournaments, including a full weekend at the Bournemouth 7s. OWs won the Chester 7s, made the Quarter Finals at the Summer Social and even entered two teams for the Wimbledon 7s, competing against the most established 7s teams in the country. The Open team won the plate final in extra time (golden point) while the Social team topped the group stages and went on to lose to eventual winners in the cup semi-final. A hugely successful day!

Now well established, the players have loved getting back together to play as Old Warwickians. They have enjoyed connecting, competing and creating new memories. Huge thanks to Tom MacDonald (WS 2013-18) for his enthusiasm and commitment in setting up the squad.

Looking ahead to the 2024 season, sponsorship is a big priority, especially for kit, tournament fees and a gazebo. Please contact Tom on tom.m@puresport.co if you might be able to support.

OW Cricket

Huge thanks to Ben Howard and Kamal Chhibber who organised and captained the OW team in their annual, closely contested game against the school. Once again, OWs retained the Peter Treadway salver. Final score: OW 195-8 (40), WS 185 all out.

OW Tennis

The annual OW vs School tennis match was of a high standard with OWs, showing their doubles experience, initially looking to have a tactical advantage. However, the school's youthful exuberance stood them in good stead and the school secured overall victory.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank Ian Macvie (WS 1969-76) for captaining OW tennis for over forty years! Ian handed over the racquet to Joe Chapman, who will organise next year's match.

The Grafton Morrish

Our Grafton Morrish team made the annual pilgrimage to Olton GC for the regional qualifying round of the competition. GM stalwarts Peter Gordon and Phil James came home with 28 stableford points, John Hale and Julian Marcus secured 23 points and Josh Kearns in his debut performance, partnered by Steve Tubb, finished on 22 points. Despite everyone's best efforts, OWs were one point short of qualifying for the finals. Thank you to those who played and to Matt Hicks for his captaincy.

OWs vs School

This year's encounter saw three pairs from each team competing for the Jack Marshall Trophy at Leamington & Co. Golf Club.

OWs were proud to welcome into the team WS Director of Rugby Tom Pierce. After 17 years, Tom is taking up a new post as Director of Sport at Berkhamsted School. Owen Herringshaw supported the match as the new WS Head of Golf.

The first OW pair of Geoff Tedstone and Tom Pierce secured a narrow win while the second OW pairing, John Gibbons and Sam Gill, faced some fantastic golf from their opposition who secured a win for the school. The third OW pairing, Tim Harry and Harry Abell, secured a very narrow win so the matched squared 1½ to 1½ with OWs retaining the trophy. The score book now shows 8 wins for OWs and 7 for the School.

The five-mile Thames Hare & Hounds Alumni Race starts at 15:00 and we would love to have an OW team. Team size is unlimited and participation is more important than positioning (although we can always make room in the school trophy cabinet). There are various age categories to suit all.

For details and to register, please visit <https://data.opentrack.run/en-gb/x/2023/GBR/thhar23/>. There is a £10 per person entry fee which includes a donation to the Wimbledon and Putney Commons Conservators.

From the Archivist

Remembering those Old Warwickians who fell in military conflict and who are not, as yet, commemorated

Gervald Frykman

We are indebted to Historic England for the following:

It is not known how many First World War memorials there are, so widespread was the nation's grief, but there are certainly tens of thousands in Britain. Historic England listed more than 2,500 war memorials over the centenary period 2014-2018.

No area of our heritage is more poignant than war memorials. They are found everywhere, and link the tragic impact of world wars with local communities across the land. Every community sent people off to fight and work; virtually all suffered losses, and the absence of the British Empire's 1.1 million dead created a powerful need for monuments. No greater wave of public remembrance has ever happened in history.

Memorials took many forms, and in some places the war was commemorated by dedicated parks and gardens, village halls, tree planting, church lychgates and playing fields.

Now that the last veterans of the 1914-1918 conflict have died, it is left to future generations to keep the memories fresh, with communities taking an ever-greater interest in their local memorials.

A great deal of work went into producing Warwick School's memorials for the First and Second World Wars. We must not forget, either, that there were five OW casualties in the South African (or Boer) Wars in the late 19th century. It is an unfortunate fact that there is some confusion as to who some of the names carved on the memorials actually are. It is astonishing, perhaps, that around a quarter of the names on the First World War memorial in the school chapel are not recorded in the school's Admissions Books, and it can only be surmised that these casualties were accorded the honour of being classed as Old Warwickians either through having passed through the King's Middle School, which amalgamated with Warwick School in 1906, or because they were "school servants" – which is how non-teaching employees of the school were termed in those days. We have no records of such employees from the First World War period, or even much later. A rare example of proof of this hypothesis was provided earlier this year, when I was sent information about one Able Seaman W. E. Neville, who went down with his ship at the Battle of Jutland (862 crew lost from that one ship), aged 19, and whose name is on our Memorial. His naval record lists his occupation on joining the Navy in 1912 as "Garden Boy".

A second problem is that, in the decades since the World Wars ended, names have gradually emerged who, it can be proved, were definitely Old Warwickians and also who definitely died in military service of their country. The fact that one name only came to light 104 years after the end of the First World War galvanised us into commissioning a memorial listing these names, and it is hoped that this new memorial will be in position in the school chapel in time for a dedication on Remembrance Sunday, 2023.

They shall grow not old as we that are left grow old.
Age shall not weary them,
nor the years condemn.

At the going down of the sun and in the morning, we will remember them.

WWI Memorial, Warwick School Chapel

The missing First World War casualties are:

- E A Walker (WS 1906), died 29 December 1915.
- H B Davies, died 3 November 1917. Possibly the mis-spelled H. Davis (WS 1891-94).
- F E Smith. There were two Warwick School casualties with the same surname and initials. Frank Edmund Smith, KMS and WS 1900-08, died on the Somme on 25 August 1916. Francis Edward Smith died on 18 November 1918, but is not in an Admissions Book.
- C F H Kent, died 14 March 1917. (WS 1910-12).
- J G Faulks, died 23 July 1916. (WS 1908-9).
- R D D-D Brownson (WS 1899-1902), a Captain Surgeon who died in India on 21 October 1918, and who we were only informed about in 2022. He is pictured as the touch-judge in the 1901-02 Warwick School Football Team photo.

WWII Memorial, Warwick School Chapel

The missing names from the Second World War are listed below. The first five, listed by Kenneth Fowler in his County of Warwickshire Roll of Honour, Vol 1 (2005), are not listed as former pupils:

- R G Hart, died 18 December 1940.
- L J Glover-Price, died 29 June 1943 (killed in a Halifax).
- J F Harper, died 31 July 1943 (killed in a Halifax).
- G Faulkner, died 29 December 1944 (killed in a Lancaster).
- K W Hardiman, died 17 May 1945 (lost at sea).
- Sgt H F Clarke RAFVR, died 24 July 1942. Named on the Runnymede Memorial. (WS 1932-39).
- FO J Coles RAFVR, died 10 June 1943. Buried at Reykjavik. (WS 1932-39).
