WS Camera Club

1903-05

Historic Warwick School slides, dating from 1903 to 1905, have been discovered on ebay and bought by School Archivist Gervald Frykman. Peter O'Grady has kindly digitised the glass plate positives (magic lantern slides) which were taken by Warwick School Camera Club between 1903 and 1905.

Warwick School Camera Club was founded in 1901 by Rev Robert Percival Brown, the Headmaster between 1896 and 1902. The discovered slides are the work of the Camera Club, which flourished under Mr Howlett, the school choir master and organist, between 1903 and 1905.

The Portcullis from July 1904 records: "The third annual excursion of the Camera Club took place on [Wednesday] June 8th. The bicycles and the brake left the school at about 2:15. The first place visited was Guy's Cliffe, where a great many successful photographs were taken. From Guy's Cliffe we proceeded to Leek Wootton and from thence to Yarningdale, via Wroxall, where tea was provided. On the whole the light was fairly good and most of the photographs taken turned out successful. The brake left Yarningdale about 7:30, and returned home via Claverdon."

From The Portcullis, March 1905: "Camera Club: Mr Howlett gave a very interesting and instructive lecture in the President's Room on "How to make lantern slides". He exposed several plates and then developed them. They were tried in the lantern and proved quite successful."

Why come to an OW Reunion?

When an OW receives an invitation to a Warwick School reunion, there must be many, varied reactions: curiosity; enthusiasm; nostalgia; apprehension perhaps since not all memories of school are good ones. At times, the treatment and discipline of boys was markedly different to Warwick School today. Remember, too, those lessons on calculus. Did I really have to swim in that outdoor pool? And whatever loosened those once-so-strong ties of friendship?

Yet, if your busy life permits, you should come to at least one reunion. Why? Well, many OWs say the experience is often invigorating. Rather like being on a toboggan that is about to enter a banked curve just a little too fast. Some faces are a blur; others are, happily, instantly familiar.

The passing of time seems altered. As you meet with former classmates, the present disappears, and a more intense, shared past envelops you. Your perspective shifts. Can that figure over there really be Mr Hudson? And where have they hidden the Guy Nelson Hall?

Self-awareness often deepens as, with conversation and recollection, you realise how parts of you (and others) stay the same, while new talents, skills, relationships and achievements have shaped the person you now are.

Our reunions are emphatically not “networking opportunities” nor the educational equivalent of “cold-calling”. Instead, they offer a chance to gather afresh with those who were a significant part of your life in surroundings which, we believe, will be welcoming, reassuring and, yes, invigorating.

With thanks to former Head of English Dr Scott Wilson (WS Staff 1979-2010) who kindly penned these thoughts on OW reunions.

Rugby success

For a further successive year, the school rugby teams are enjoying great success at a regional and national level.

The U18 team played their NatWest Cup semi-final on 4 March, after narrowly beating QEGS Wakefield in the quarter-finals. In their semi-final against Felsted at Allianz Park, a determined and organised performance booked them a place in the final against Bishop Wordsworth's, to be played on Weds 29 March.

As we go to press the Warwick U15 team is through to the NatWest Cup semi-finals after a win over Langley School. Final score Warwick 27 - 0 Langley. They are scheduled to play their semi-final on 18 March at Allianz Park.

Warwick School bursaries

Thank you to the many OWs who have supported, and continue to support our capital and bursary appeals. For years, many boys have benefited from a Warwick School education thanks to bursary support for school fees. Over the next few months the school will be unveiling a plan to raise more money for bursaries, so we can increase the number of pupils from families who would otherwise be unable to afford the school fees.

Exhibition of young artists

Warwick joined 28 local schools in the Exhibition of Young Artists, which was hosted in the new Warwick Hall.

Music

The standard of music and entertainment from individuals and ensembles at the annual Jazz at the Bridge and House Competition was amazing.

Impressive printing

The school's Art Dept. was delighted to take delivery of a 1964 Vandercook SP15 Printing Press, kindly donated by Dr Peter Wilson (WS 1950-58).

Upon retiring Peter took up letterpress printing using paper, ink and lead type.

Peter has gifted the press and all the type to the school so that boys will be able to discover and enjoy letterpress printing.

Peter visited the Art Department in February and was amazed at the variety and quality of work being done by the boys.

Bienvenue

Teachers Eric Hadley and Chris McNee were delighted to see former WS language assistant Pierre-Antoine Coicaud, who visited the school with a group of French students from his lycée in Tours.

Oxbridge

U6 boys head to a range of universities and colleges to continue their education. They pursue an increasing range of studies and specialties. Many of the current U6 have now secured offers for September and are gearing up for the exam season.

OWs Morgan Barnden and Henry Day joined U6 boys who have secured Oxbridge offers.

Warwick School Connect

Congratulations to Karl Ude-Martinez (WS 1993-98), the 800th Old Warwickian to join www.warwickschoolconnect.org.

After a year out travelling North and South America, exploring his passion for polo, Karl headed off to East 15 Acting School, London. He has worked in various TV, film and theatre productions, including a run with the RSC.

Karl also works as a TV presenter, hosting sporting events for channels including Sky Sports and history documentaries for channels such as the History Channel.

Karl is no stranger to high octane sports. He continued to play rugby after Warwick, enjoys skiing and anything equine sport related. As well as helping the family equestrian centre in Warwick, he also runs his own equestrian stunt display team, The Knights of Middle England. The team performs all over the UK and Europe, in the TV and film industry and also provides the action packed jousting shows for Warwick Castle. It is the UK's only Jousting School.

Karl enjoys the variety that his work brings and the opportunity to travel. He says that whether he is presenting, playing polo or jousting, he will always be a Warwick boy!

Warwick School Connect is a free online networking platform exclusively for OWs. Sign up in less than two minutes on www.warwickschoolconnect.org.

Rosencrantz & Guildenstern Are Dead

Joshua McGuire (WS 1999-06) is currently starring opposite Daniel Radcliffe in Rosencrantz & Guildenstern Are Dead, at The Old Vic. Half a century after its première, the play that made a young Tom Stoppard's name overnight, has returned to The Old Vic in its 50th anniversary production.

Against the backdrop of Shakespeare's Hamlet, this mind-bending situation comedy sees two hapless minor characters, Rosencrantz (Radcliffe) and Guildenstern (McGuire), take centre stage.

Letters to Strabo

Letters to Strabo, the fourth novel from David Smith (WS 1972-79) is the fictional autobiography of Adam Finnegan Black. Set in the late 1970s, Letters to Strabo, centres around 'Finn', an innocent young American who is insatiably curious about life.

Thank you

Thank you to the many OWs who offer Warwick School boys careers talks, advice and mentoring.

Thomas Key (WS 1992-97), at Goldman Sachs, gave boys an insightful talk on 'A Career in Private Wealth Investment'.

Gerrard Tyrrell CVO (WS 1968-75), with Harbottle & Lewis, grabbed boys' attention with a talk on 'Lies, shock and outrage – an alternative life in the law'.

Welcome back

Warwick School is always pleased to welcome OWs back. Returning this winter...

Richard Barker (WS 1954-61).

Hugo Bates (WS 2001-11).

Ollie Bond (WS 2001-12).

Alex Lewis (WS 1978-85).

Anyone for tennis?

James Mower (WS 2000-07) enjoyed The Old Warwickian and some great matches at the Australian Open.

James Mower (WS 2000-07).

Marathon Men

It's that time of year when we cheer on all OWs running in the London marathon. For the 17th successive year Dave Phillips (WS 1955-61) is running for the Brain and Spine Foundation. Many years ago Dave set himself two goals; one was to run 500 marathons. London will be his 477th. The other goal was to raise £100,000 for the Brain and Spine Foundation. With £98,000 already raised, Dave has just £2,000 to go. If you would like to support Dave please visit <http://uk.virginmoneygiving.com/team/teamphillips2017>.

Twelfth Night

Maanuv Thiara (WS 2001-12) has been playing Sir Andrew/Sebastian in Twelfth Night (Shakespeare Up Close) at the Orange Tree Theatre, London. In a 90 minute feisty and fast paced production with crystal clear text, 'Shakespeare Up Close' aims to make Shakespeare relevant to a younger audience.

OW Sport

OW Cross Country

Ten OWs competed in the Thames Hare and Hounds Alumni Race on 17 December. The five mile course over Wimbledon Common was suitably muddy and challenging. Congratulations to Simon Wurr for finishing in the top ten, to our OW 'newcomers' who did brilliantly, and to many who improved on their timing and ranking from 2015. Most importantly, a big thank you to all OWs who ran, for taking the trouble to get there (not the most accessible of venues!) and for giving up a Saturday very close to Christmas. The provisional date for this year's race is Saturday 16 December. This will be confirmed in the next Old Warwickian. All OW runners welcome!

Rob Meadows, James Mower, David Porter, Geoff Webb, Jack Thornton, Dave Lindsay, Martin Garrett, Dave Phillips, Jonathan Hobbs and Simon Wurr.

OW Cricket

Calling both regular and non-regular players

OW cricket is a great social opportunity to play cricket, whether you are a regular or occasional player. There is an annual summer fixture against the school, where we hope to field two OW teams, plus an old boys' Cricketer Trophy, where we play other alumni cricket teams in a knock-out competition.
