1960s Lunch

28 November 2021

OWs from the 1960s, who continued to enjoy friendship through OW rugby and The Portcullis Club, were delighted to spend time together again back at Warwick School in November. A roast carvery lunch in the Halse Pavilion, washed down with some excellent wine, was organised by Julian Griffiths (WS 1957-68). Extra entertainment was provided by means of a current boarders' snowball fight when it began to snow!

OW and OGA London Breakfast

8 March 2022 – The Lansdowne Club

Warwick School and King's High alumni enjoyed their first joint OW and OGA London Breakfast at The Lansdowne Club on 8 March. This new initiative was a great opportunity to network across a wider alumni Foundation. A huge thank you to Bright Network Founder and CEO James Uffindell (WS 1992-97), who led the event with great enthusiasm and insight, speaking about the future of work and energising discussions with a speed networking session.

OWA Annual Dinner

4 December 2021 – The Pyne Room, Warwick School

Members of staff past and present included James Barker (Head Master), John Jefferies, Jon Stone, Eric Hadley, Robert Hudson, Carlo Giudici, Tony Sparks, Beverleigh Twohig-Howell and Gervald Frykman. Good food, wine and company was enjoyed and a post-dinner bar in the Halse Pavilion offered further opportunities to relax.

Royal Encounters

Warwick School

As well as spending time with old friends and enjoying a Platinum Jubilee Afternoon Tea on 2 April, OWs were treated to an illustrated talk on Warwick School's Royal Visits and Connections from WS Archivist Gervald Frykman.

The highly successful recent visit of HRH The Princess Royal on 5 November 2021, marking the completion of Project One Campus, should be set in the context of previous Royal visits – or 'almost visits' or near misses.

Queen Elizabeth I visited Warwick in 1572 and was told that her father, King Henry VIII, had endowed the town (in 1545) and had provided for "a skolemaister for the bringing up of youth in learning and vertu". The premises occupied by the school at this time were what is now the Lord Leycester Hospital. The boys would certainly have been released to cheer the Queen, but there is no record that she set foot in the school.

There are two successive entries in the Warwick School Master's Book (Vol II) dating from the late 19th century: Tomorrow at the request of the Earl of Warwick, a whole holiday will be granted to the school in honour of the visit of HRH the Prince of Wales (16 May 1895, JP Way).

HRH the Prince of Wales has requested me to grant a holiday to the whole school in honour of his visit. I need not say that such a request comes to me as a command. There will, therefore, be no school today. The Prince passes the school on his way to Leamington Station about 2.15 this afternoon. I must ask the whole school to be present at the gates and to give him a hearty cheer (20 May 1895, JP Way).

The November 1958 visit by Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother to Warwick School was a triumph of minute-by-minute organisation. The Queen Mother opened the new school gates and walked through Big School (now the Pyne Room), chapel, the gym and the chemistry lecture room in the new 1957 science block.

On 5 July 1990 Princess Anne visited Warwick Preparatory School, aka The Squirrels. She opened the Science, Technology and Art building and rounded off her visit by planting a tulip tree.

HRH The Prince of Wales visited Warwick School on 2 June 2014, marking the school's 1,100th anniversary. The Prince of Wales was greeted by the Head Master, a number of local dignitaries and the CCF, who gave a Royal Salute at the front of the school. He signed the same Visitors' Book that his grandmother, the Queen Mother, had signed when she visited the school in 1958.

Most recently, on 5 November 2021, HRH The Princess Royal came to celebrate the work of local charities and organisations, and to mark an important milestone in education – the completion of Project One Campus.

Pupils from the CCF formed a Guard of Honour as Governors, staff and pupils lined up to greet the Princess following her visit to Warwick Hall. The Princess Royal was escorted on a visit to parts of the schools and she unveiled a plaque by the shared Sixth Form Centre.

OW and OGA Armed Forces Dinner

12 March 2022

In his Chapel address before the Armed Forces Dinner on 12 March, Maj Gen Mike Huntley CB (WS 1962-69) reflected on the core values of honesty, integrity and resilience which are shared by Warwick School and the Armed Forces.

With international relations and the war in Ukraine at the forefront of current affairs, it seemed more appropriate than ever to honour and remember alumni past and present who have chosen to serve in the Armed Forces. Some 38 alumni are currently serving, spread across the Royal Navy, Royal Fleet Auxiliary, British Army (including General Staff) and Royal Air Force.

Brig (Ret'd) Bill Aldridge CBE (WS 1969-79) kindly hosted the dinner which was held for serving and retired Old Warwickians and Old Girls of King's High. As well as being married to Gill (KHS 1974-81), Bill is the son of Brig Brian Aldridge OBE (WS 1945-52) who married Sue (also King's High!). Excellent food and wine were enjoyed by all.

Head Master James Barker (WS 1991-97) emphasised how proud the Foundation is of its servicemen and women. He highlighted the strength and popularity of the joint CCF today. The overriding aim of CCF training remains to develop leadership, teamwork, initiative and self-reliance, helping our students become more confident and independent. The Head Master toasted all our alumni in the armed forces and absent friends and Brig Bill Aldridge finished his excellent speech with a toast to the schools.

OWs in the Wessex region are warmly invited to join Jimmy Flynn (WS 1967 & 1970-77), Tim Harry (WS 1963-73) and Mike Huntley (WS 1962-69) for the long awaited:

Wessex Old Warwickians Lunch at The Plume of Feathers, Sherborne, DT9 3LN on Weds 25 May 2022.
Wives/partners most welcome.

Enjoy a private OW tour of Sherborne Abbey, before a welcome drink and nibbles in the walled garden of The Plume of Feathers, followed by a delicious set lunch with dessert in a separate part of the pub, all for £35 a head. Lunch wine and drinks at the table to be bought and paid for separately on the day. Donations to the Abbey after the tour gratefully received.

- 13.00 Lunch in a private dining room at The Plume of Feathers.

The Plume is a traditional 16th century pub opposite the Abbey, serving the very untraditional Italian small plate food, some of the best Italian food you'll find locally. Each table is served a selection of dishes to share in no particular order as the dishes will arrive when they're ready. The set menu will cover all of this and more! Expect to see seasonal Italian and West

Sherborne Abbey

Country ingredients used to make the authentic, occasionally quirky, Italian homemade dishes. All the pasta, bread and sauces are made in-house on a daily basis. It also provides an unparalleled experience for those who have dietary requirements with numerous options for vegetarians, vegans and coeliacs.

Jimmy, Tim and Mike have had to suffer endless trials and tastings at The Plume to make sure it'll be good enough for you all and it would be lovely to see you there. We do hope you are able to come.

Parking in Sherborne can be tricky and The Plume has no car park of its own. Nearby, there is on-street parking limited to two hours or a long-stay car park called Culverhayes (DT9 3ED) where you can park all day for £2.80, and it's only a six-minute walk. The best way to travel is by train as the Abbey is only a three-minute walk from the station.

OW Anniversary Reunions

Saturday 11 June 2022 – Warwick School

Over 200 OWs have already booked to attend our OW anniversary reunions on Saturday 11 June. As well as year-group gatherings for 1962, '72, '82, '92, 2002 and 2012 leavers, we are welcoming back leavers from 1960, '70, '80, '90, 2000 and 2010 who were unable to gather in 2020 due to Covid restrictions.

The reunions will be simple and relaxed. Meet back at school from 14:00 to 17:00 for drinks, tours of the school and afternoon refreshments. Name badges will be provided and areas assigned for different year-groups to gather.

A number of current and former staff have also confirmed their attendance.

These anniversary reunions are for those who left at the end of the Upper Sixth in those years plus classmates who left earlier, including those who left two years previously, after O levels or GCSEs.

If you would like to come, please book now on www.oldwarwickians.org/2022anniversaryreunion

Why come to an OW Reunion?

When an OW receives an invitation to a Warwick School reunion, there must be many, varied reactions: curiosity; enthusiasm; nostalgia; apprehension perhaps since not all memories of school are good ones. Remember, too, those lessons on calculus. Did I really have to swim in that outdoor pool? And whatever loosened those once-so-strong ties of friendship?

Yet, if your busy life permits, you should come to at least one reunion. Why? Well, many OWs say the experience is often invigorating. Rather like being on a toboggan that is about to enter a banked curve just a little too fast. Some faces are a blur; others are, happily, instantly familiar.

The passing of time seems altered. As you meet with former classmates, the present disappears, and a more intense, shared past envelops you. Your perspective shifts. Can that figure over there really be Mr Hudson? And where have they hidden the Guy Nelson Hall?

Self-awareness often deepens as, with conversation and recollection, you realise how parts of you (and others) stay the same, while new talents, skills, relationships and achievements have shaped the person you now are.

Our reunions are emphatically not “networking opportunities” nor the educational equivalent of “cold-calling”. Instead, they offer a chance to gather afresh with those who were a significant part of your life in surroundings which, we believe, will be welcoming, reassuring and, yes, invigorating.

School News

We feature here a selection of Michaelmas and Lent news, reflecting just some of the amazing opportunities available at Warwick School. Beyond the classroom, students continue to enjoy a full and broad programme of sport, music, drama, debating, co-curricular activities and academic enrichment opportunities.

Concert Band Festival

Chamber Concert

The joyful sound of music is once again heard in the classrooms and performance spaces across Warwick School. Jazz at the Bridge and Brass for Africa were amazing. The Music Scholars' Concert featured a range of exceptional solo performers and the annual Chamber Concert showcased our superb small classical ensembles, including piano trios, string quartets, a saxophone ensemble, chamber choir and fanfare team.

Congratulations to Super Tonics, Jazz Lab, Big Band Blue, Big Band Red, Little Big Band and the Foundation Wind Orchestra who were each awarded gold for their performances in the regional round of the National Concert Band Festival. We wish them well in the National Concert Band Finals in April.

Exhibition of Young Artists

While we were unable to welcome local schools to the annual Exhibition of Young Artists in person, the event was moved online. In addition, our young artists put on their own exhibition for Warwick School pupils, parents and staff in Warwick Hall.

Junior art exhibition

Eddie Jones returns

It was wonderful to welcome back England Rugby Head Coach Eddie Jones, who joined an audience in Warwick Hall via video link to talk about 'Leadership and lessons from my life in rugby'. Boys were delighted when Eddie also returned in person to offer some rugby coaching.

Eddie Jones returned to school to help with rugby coaching

53 years of Rugby Sevens

Warwick Sevens

The Warwick Sevens returned triumphantly at the beginning of March, welcoming school teams from across the UK. The U13-U16 Warwick teams did fantastically well, with the U14s losing to Wellington College and the U15s to Hampton in their respective semi-finals. The U16s lost narrowly to King's Macclesfield in their final. The event raised over £4,000 for two charities; the Ukrainian UNICEF appeal and the testicular cancer charity, Oddballs.

The Mulley tie

A school assembly on OW and leading Labour politician of the 1970s Fred Mulley (WS 1929-36) heralded the introduction of the Mulley tie. The tie is awarded to commemorate the achievements of Fred and to recognise, from individual students, a love of learning and intellectual enquiry. The ties are offered to a small number of Sixth Formers each term.

The first recipients of the Mulley tie

Oxbridge offers

Congratulations to five boys who have received Oxbridge offers and are set to study Natural Sciences, Music, Law, Engineering and History.

Walk for Ukraine

Students from Warwick and King's High undertook a 'Walk for Ukraine' in order to purchase two second-hand ambulances which will be loaded with vital medical supplies and driven to a Ukrainian field hospital. See why our students undertook this challenge: <https://youtu.be/ejfmppy0w-s> and please support them if you can via our JustGiving page: <https://bit.ly/3lCnWD5>.

Return to the stage

Talented actors from Warwick and King's High made a spectacular return to drama with a modern retelling of the 15th century morality play Everyman in the Bridge House Theatre.

This term, a Middle School production of The Musicians was enjoyed by audiences in early March and our Sixth Form production of Hedda Gabler offered audiences an intimate production with a capacity of 20 audience members only.

Rehearsals are well underway for a Lower School production of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, which takes to the stage in the Summer term.

Tickets and information on Warwick School and other productions in the Bridge House Theatre are available on www.bridgehousetheatre.co.uk.

Orchestra of the Swan

The incredible Orchestra of the Swan are performing three exciting and accessible concerts in Warwick Hall as part of our ground-breaking new partnership aimed at creating a centre of musical excellence in Warwickshire on the Foundation site. Arcadiana (20 January) and Pastoral (17 March) have already delighted many. A Family Concert featuring Prokofiev's Peter and the Wolf on 18 June will be a superb afternoon for all to enjoy. See www.bridgehousetheatre.co.uk for tickets and information.

Schools Cup

This year's 1st XV journey in the Schools Cup came to an end in the regional semi-finals, with a 13-10 win for Rugby School. The U15 rugby team lost 10-5 to QEGS Wakefield in the quarter-finals.

Sport

Hockey, swimming, cross country, fencing, clay pigeon shooting and even skiing are some of the many sports enjoyed by students in the Michaelmas and Lent terms. We even entered two teams of skiers in the English Schools Ski Association Finals... held in Norwich!

Seb in full flight at the ESSkiA Finals

Remembrance

School Remembrance events included a Remembrance Assembly, Chapel Service and the laying of wreaths in honour of OWs who lost their lives in the service of their country. We are especially grateful to Jaish Mahan (WS 1985-92) who gave the address in the Chapel Service. Jaish is currently Deputy Commander Reserves 7 Brigade – 'The Desert Rats'.

Development News

Thank you

Old Warwickians have a long tradition of giving back to Warwick School. OWs volunteer time to support pupils with careers, lend expertise by serving as Governors and make gifts to develop facilities or to support bursaries.

We are enormously grateful for all your support which makes a lasting difference to the education of our students. It transforms lives and opens up new possibilities and opportunities.

If you would like to make a gift or discuss any aspect of supporting Warwick School please contact Phillip Rothwell via email on p.rothwell@warwickschools.co.uk or phone on 01926 776402.

The Old Warwickian Trust

The Old Warwickian Trust, established in 2011 and currently under the chairmanship of Charles Heaton (WS 1969-80), is pleased to announce that it is currently providing bursaries for five boys at Warwick School.

Reaching higher

David Stooke Memorial Humanities Prize

David Stooke

Bill Penn (WS 1970-75) led a fundraising appeal to establish a prize in honour of David Stooke, English teacher at Warwick from 1970 to 1998, who died in 2020.

Many OWs who fondly remembered David's inspirational teaching joined together to establish a fund of £3,500, enabling a £250 annual award to be made for at least 14 years. The award takes the form of an essay competition for Year 10 to 13 students, who are invited to submit a 1,000-word short story with a blinding twist. The first award will be made in the Summer term 2022.

Telephone Campaign and Regular Giving for Bursaries

The collective support of OWs making one-off and regular gifts to the Bursary Fund helps to increase the number and level of bursaries the school can offer to boys joining in Year 7. In recent years, many OWs have set up regular direct debits which, on average, provide the equivalent of at least one full fee place per year at the school.

We are proud of the support received from our three telephone campaigns, held in 2014, 2017 and 2021, during which teams of recent leavers called alumni to reconnect. The campaigns raised some £300,000 in gifts.

Martin Lambert Legacy and Boarding Bursary Fund

Martin Lambert at the start of the 1951 tour to Rhineland

Martin Lambert (WS 1944-51) received a free place at Warwick School. He went on to study languages at Birmingham University, later working as a Russian translator for the Government, before settling on a teaching career in Cheltenham. Martin never forgot the kindness of Head Master AHB Bishop who helped to pay for his train fare to Birmingham University in his first term.

When he died in 2019, Martin generously left a substantial legacy to Warwick School of over £800,000. This money has helped to establish a new Boarding Bursary Fund in partnership with the Royal National Children's Springboard Foundation. The Springboard Foundation knows that some of the UK's leading schools – boarding and independent – offer their pupils opportunities, experiences and relationships that are literally life-changing. The new Boarding Bursary Fund ensures that these opportunities are targeted towards young people who most need them: those who have faced challenging circumstances – children or teenagers in or on the edge of care or growing up in households or communities where opportunities to flourish are limited.

Thanks to Martin's legacy two pupils are currently being supported on a boarding bursary and further bursaries are being offered in September 2022.

Leaving a legacy is a very personal decision and can truly transform lives. The Floreat Society was set up to recognise those OWs and friends who have left a gift to the school in their Will.

If you wish, in confidence, to discuss any aspect of leaving a legacy, please contact Phillip Rothwell, Director of Development, on p.rothwell@warwickschools.co.uk or tel 01926 776402.

Major gifts for transformational projects

In March 2022, Warwick School Head Master James Barker and Foundation Principal Richard Nicholson hosted a London dinner for some of our many generous OWs who are significant supporters. These and a growing number of OWs have made major contributions to the school in recent years for both bursaries and capital projects. Some have funded a whole bursary place or contributed to buildings such as the Guy Nelson Hall redevelopment. The school is enormously grateful for their generosity and looks forward to sharing future news of major gifts and transformational projects.

CCF Corps of Drums

Nigel Robinson (WS 1955-66) and David Stevens (WS 1968-74) are leading the charge to re-establish a CCF Corps of Drums.

The CCF band was a popular and prominent feature of Warwick School life for many years but ended in the mid-1980s. CCF OC Lt Col Keith Davenport has over 20 aspiring band members in the current CCF contingent and we now need to fund equipment and resources to re-establish the band. We have already received a generous gift from Nigel Brown OBE (WS 1957-64) to establish a new fund for the band and hope to increase this over the coming months. Richard Phillips (WS 1959-66) and John Davidson (WS 1957-66) have both offered a bugle in memory of their friends and former bandsmen Adrian Haynes and David Thomas respectively. Watch this space for more information or email development@warwickschools.co.uk if you would like to find out more.

Gallery of Young OWs

Thanks to all those who have agreed to be included on a new Young OWs Gallery. Their profiles will illustrate, online and in print, to prospective and current students, the fantastic and diverse range of employment and career opportunities enjoyed by our young alumni. As well as career insights, OWs have shared their fondest memories of Warwick and advice they might offer to their teenage selves. We share a few highlights from some here:

Chris Byrne (WS 1998-2003)

Chris is Senior Vice President at global advertising agency Media.Monks. He stresses the importance of confidence in communications in the workplace and fondly remembers Drama at Warwick. Rainy rugby matches helped forge friendships, build grit and encourage teamwork. One piece of advice to his teenage self: "aim for the best grades... video games can come later".

Kishan Bodalia (WS 2002-13)

A&E doctor Kishan Bodalia especially appreciated sports and music at school. Through his role as Head of School he developed communications skills which have given him confidence speaking to large audiences. His number one piece of advice: "try as many things as possible to find out what you enjoy!"

Daniel Simmons (WS 2006-11)

Six years ago Dan started social media marketing agency, Populate Social. Dan's advice to his teenage self: "You don't need to know what you want to do with your life. Find something you enjoy, put your all into it and take every opportunity. Take a moment to appreciate what you have and what you are achieving".

Nick Claydon-Bevan (WS 2002-10)

Nick is currently Communications Director for Aldi UK & Ireland. He says "Warwick teaches you to be well rounded. I picked up so many useful life skills and discipline from my teachers, from playing sport, CCF and school trips". His advice to his teenage self: "Work hard at school. Employers look closely at your GCSE and A-level results!"

Edward Button (WS 1997-2008)

Edward loved being in Warwick School Chapel Choir and is currently one of the Countertenors in The King's Singers. His main advice to his teenage self would be: "be yourself, whatever that might be".

Ryan Wong (WS 2005-10)

Ryan is a software engineer in the finance industry. He has fond memories of the boarding house, including the regular staff vs boarders football. He remains very close to fellow OWs who are in the UK and back in Hong Kong.

Johnny Wang (WS 2004-09)

Architect Johnny spent five great years in the WS Boarding House. He says: "Stick with what interests you and give it your full energy and attention. Accept all the challenges, stay positive, be kind and always show appreciation".

Will Todman (WS 1998-2009)

Will is a fellow in the Middle East Program at the Center for Strategic and International Studies in the US. His interest in languages began at Warwick and he is grateful to John Jefferies, who first suggested he study Arabic and to Charlie Hammel, who introduced him to Arabic on Thursday afternoons.

Armonico Consort celebrate 20 years

Dave Phillips MBE (WS 1955-61) has been delighted to be associated with critically acclaimed choir and instrumental Armonico Consort, since attending their performance of Scarlatti's Dixit Dominus twenty years ago. Armonico began life in 2001, set up by Christopher Monks and university colleagues with a shared passion for music from the Renaissance to Baroque. Twenty years on, Dixit Dominus featured again in Armonico's performance in St Mary's Church at the end of January – which Phillips and Becker Accountants were delighted to sponsor. Armonico were back in St Mary's Church on 9 April, with a performance of Bach's St John Passion.

Jack says "My abiding recollection was of turning off a firm track at the far end of the course on to a single width slippery/sliding quagmire some 30 metres long and then, on towards the end, needing to steeplechase over the trunks of fallen trees".

OW Rugby 7s

This summer, a group of OWs have set up an Old Warwickian Rugby 7s club to compete in five major tournaments across the UK.

The club aims to create an Old Warwickian community that comes together to compete in the game. The club includes Warwick Rugby legends, ex-professional players and players who have competed in the national leagues, BUCS Super Rugby and on the Super Sevens Series circuit. The tournaments are a way of reuniting old boys who enjoy rugby values and a few beers after the tournament to catch up and look back on fond memories playing in the Blue and White. The squad welcomes and actively encourages OWs to join, whether that be through lacing up boots or supporting socially.

Follow an OW 7s' Supporters WhatsApp Group Chat and an OW 7s Instagram account – @old_warwickian_7s.

The squad is also actively seeking sponsors and partners ahead of the summer season. If you or anyone you know, would like to support, please get in contact with Team Manager Tom MacDonald (WS 2013-18) via the OW 7s Instagram account or by emailing tommacdonaldt00@gmail.com.

View from the cockpit (Part 2)

We continue our feature on OW pilots. Men who have a love of flying in craft ranging from light aircraft to supersonic jets, Harriers and helicopters.

Air Cdre Peter Squires OBE (WS 1975-86)

Air Cdre Peter Squires OBE

Warwick CCF gave Peter the opportunity to visit several RAF stations, fly on the school's catapult launched glider, get a taste of military life and cemented his desire to fly within the RAF. A Sixth Form flying scholarship followed by Southampton University Air Squadron, built further on his passion for flying.

After RAF flying training, Peter was selected to fly the Harrier jump jet where he spent 12 years on different squadrons deploying on numerous operations. His speciality was weapons and tactics, often leading large formations with the US and allies on operations, before heading to test new weapons and electronic warfare equipment in the USA. He was also privileged to spend a year demonstrating the Harrier across Europe as the air display pilot.

A younger Peter with brother Chris

More Harrier flying

As experience grew, Peter took command of 100 Squadron which flew Red Air aggressor sorties against UK and US aircraft. Inevitably, ground-based appointments beckoned. Brother Chris (WS 1978-88), who also flew fast jets in the RAF, chose to continue his flying career with the airlines, but Peter opted for other roles in the military. From 2016-19, he was appointed Commandant RAFC Cranwell where he flew Air Cadets in the Grob Tutor light aircraft.

Peter received the Queen's Commendation for Valuable Service in the Air and, in August 2022, becomes Commander British Forces Cyprus and Sovereign Base Administrator in the rank of Air Vice-Marshal.

Oran Aske-Haley (WS 2006-17)

Oran always wanted to be a commercial airline pilot and is navigating the challenges of post-Brexit pilot licensing. He is currently doing some flying and more tests in Belgium in pursuit of an additional commercial pilot's licence that will allow him to fly in the EU. He will then have two commercial pilot's licences, one allowing him to fly for UK airlines and the other for EU airlines.

Amit Bir (WS 1999-2006)

Amit worked for Ryanair for six years, based in Scotland and Spain. For the last seven years has been working for Emirates Airlines and is currently a Captain flying the Boeing 777, based out in Dubai. During the pandemic Amit flew the cargo variant of the 777 for Emirates, delivering consignments of PPE globally.

James Ryan (WS 2003-11)

Cumulus cloud on arrival into Murcia, height of over 30,000ft

James started flight training in 2014 and, upon graduation, was hired by Flybe as First Officer on the Dash-8 Turboprop. He now flies the Boeing 737 for a major European carrier.

One of his best moments: sunrise over the Alps on an early training flight on the 737.

Worst moment: an unlatched door swinging out over the wing during take-off in Phoenix.

Most unusual flying experience: flying a heart to Leeds-Bradford for a transplant. The heart sat in an icebox in the cockpit.

Mike Stretton-Cox (WS 1986-89)

Refuelling RAF Harriers in Iraq, 2003, in the mighty L-1011

Mike was always fascinated with jets, fast cars and all things adrenaline-related. He won a university RAF Flying Scholarship and, upon graduating, joined the RAF. After four years flying in high-performance trainers, he became operational on the L-1011 TriStar at RAF Brize Norton. He then spent three years on Air-to-Air refuelling in Afghanistan, Iraq (Gulf War 2) and on global transport flights, before becoming an instructor on the Tucano, training the next generation of fast-jet pilots in Yorkshire.

Mike flew the C130J Hercules and went back out to Afghanistan and Iraq. His time in the RAF culminated in running the C130J detachment in Kandahar where he was responsible for the largest airdrop mission since the 1950s.

Despite leaving the RAF his association with the military continues with government contracts. His current role at RAF Brize Norton is Training Captain at AirTanker for the new generation of RAF Voyager pilots on converted Airbus A330s. He has remained a RAF Reservist throughout.

Mike has no shortage of flying highlights, including the sense of achievement after a safe and successful mission on operations, low-level flying in Wales and over Lake Windermere and tactical approaches in mountainous strips with zero room for error. Low points include exams, lots of missed sleep and seeing many friends struggle during the pandemic.

Wg Cdr Sam Fletcher MVO (WS 1992-99)

Sam is currently in command of a Royal Air Force Puma Helicopter Squadron. Over an 18-year flying career he has flown some 3,000 hours, many of which were on operations in Iraq and Afghanistan. He has trained in deserts, mountains and jungles around the world.

While the machine he flies today is a battlefield helicopter made to deliver troops to combat, it is versatile. During the last five years Sam's squadron has deployed on disaster relief operations in the Caribbean and in support of the NATO mission in Kabul.

For the last twelve months he has deployed to the USA, training in California, and also in Kenya, where he supported the Kenyan Armed Forces and the British Army's Training. As we go to press he is holding readiness to deploy to Europe to support NATO allies.

Sam was awarded the Royal Victorian Order Medal (MVO) in 2017 on relinquishment of his appointment as Equerry to HM The Queen.

Chris Burrows (WS 1999-2010)

Chris flies for easyJet, based at London Gatwick. Keen on flying from a young age, he joined the RAF section of the CCF and took up gliding, cycling to the nearest airfield at weekends. Flying took a backseat when he studied Aerospace Engineering at the University of Liverpool but, upon graduating, he secured a place on an easyJet sponsored pilot training course. After 18 months of intense study and flying training, as well as a brief time in New Zealand, he flew his first passengers to Montpellier.

Chris has been with easyJet ever since and has seen most of Europe from the cockpit. He has landed in snow storms in Iceland, flown excited children to see Santa in Lapland and had sniffer dogs search his airplane in Turkey.

During the pandemic Chris has flown less. He took a part-time contract as part of a redundancy mitigation agreement and has set up a business making and selling fresh Baklava through the post. See www.theflakywalnut.co.uk.
